Leadership Retreat

Minutes

Minutes: Chelsea made a motion to approve the minutes from the last meeting and Jeremy second it. Bill explained to the new members the process to approve minutes via e-mail.

Announcements: Nora is going to make a proposal for the advertisements of clubs. Everyone should get back with Nora for the headlines for each club.

Bill next announced that Jason Bramlet has volunteered to work with the clubs to help with their advertisements.

Bill announced the open positions for Freshman Senator and Secretary/Treasurer. A campus wide announcement was sent to advertise both positions. For the Freshman Senator position, students have to fill out a petition and we are going to review the petitions next scheduled SGA meeting. Jeremy suggested to appoint somebody who is qualify and responsible. The Secretary/Treasurer position will be filled by campus wide election.

Committee Report: Lisa informed the new officers that the deadline to sign up for a committee was Oct. 5. The list of the committees is in the SGA office.

Old Business: Chelsea informed that the pageant is going to be Nov. 12 and that she needs volunteers to help with preparations and the day of the pageant.

New Business: Chelsea next informed that the PR department is going to use Twitter. SGA is obligated to use because of student representation. We can post on Twitter the names of the activities, but for specific details we have to go to J-web. Safety is one of the concerns with the use of Twitter. Holly volunteered to work on the Twitter pager. Chelsea made a motion and Jeremy seconded it.

Everyone agreed to have the next SGA meeting Thursday 8th from 3:00-4:00 Room? The SGA reps at the retreat will get the contact information of the alternate SGA reps for each club.

Lisa administered the Oath for the new officers Holly Hollingsworth and Jeremy Conder.

Chelsea made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Nora seconded it.

Bill adjourned the meeting at 5:29.
