Good afternoon! This email is from the Office of Financial Aid at Jackson State!

We are pleased to inform you that you are a recipient of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Funding (HEERF III). A payment is not necessarily a reflection of your current student account balance. If you are due a refund of any amount, disbursed emergency grant funds will be released to you by either refund check or direct deposit, depending on the method you have setup with the college.

Direct Deposits should be in the bank by Friday, March 25th. The paper checks will be mailed March 24th so please allow extra time for postal delivery.

Although you are considered qualifying based on institutional criteria and affected by the transition to online learning due to COVID-19, USDOE regulations require funds be used to cover expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a student's cost of attendance, such as tuition, fees, food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child care). Therefore, any emergency grant funds disbursed to you must be used for such qualifying expenses. Your acceptance of the funding is considered confirmation you have a qualifying expense.

If you wish to return the funds to the institution, or if you have any questions, please contact us at cares@jscc.edu or at 731.425.2603.
